O Lord with eyes resembling Lotus! O Lord praised by best archers! O Consort of sItA! O Lord vAmana! O Lord on whom this tyAgarAja is dependent! O Lord cherished by Lords vishNu, brahmA, Siva and brAhmaNas! O Lord who is the very life of sages!

I have always trusted much Your Feet Lotus.

I have always trusted much Your Feet-Lotus which -

(1) broke the bow of Lord Siva for humbling the pride of the Kings.

(2) relieved the pitiable condition of ahalya by finding her who could not bear the constant bodily distress as a black stone because of the curse angrily pronounced on her, earlier by her ascetic husband - gautama.

(3) kicked away the huge carcass of dundubhi, in order to remove the fear caused in the mind of sugrIva who could not tolerate the troubles of his brother vAli.

Word-by-word Meaning

P I (nE) have trusted (namminAnu) much (nera) Your (nI) Feet (pada) Lotus (pankajamula).

A I have trusted much Your Feet-Lotus which - broke (druncina) the bow (cApamu) of that (A) Lord Siva (paramESvaru) for (koraku) (korakA) humbling (aNacu) the pride (garvambulu) (garvambulaNacu) of the Kings – Lords (pAlula) of Earth (bhU).

C1 I have trusted much Your Feet-Lotus which – relieved (tIrcina) the pitiable condition (paritApamu) of ahalya by finding (kani) her (Apenu) who could not bear (Orva lEni) (lEnApenu) the constant (anu dinanu) (literally daily) bodily (tanu) distress (tApamu) (tApamOrva) as a black (cApa) stone (rAti) because of the curse (SApamuna) angrily (kOpamutO) pronounced (iccina) (literally given) on her earlier (munu) by her ascetic (tApasi) (tApasiyiccina) husband - gautama.

C2 O Lord with eyes (nayana) resembling (tulita) Lotus (vana-ruha)! I have trusted much Your Feet-Lotus which – kicked away (tannina) the huge (ghanatama) carcass (penutala/pInuganu) of dundubhi, in order to remove (egayaga) (literally fly away) the fear (bhayamu) (bhayamegayaga) caused (kaligina) in the mind (mati) of sugrIva – son (suta) (satu) of Sun (virOcana) - who could not tolerate (sahimpani) the troubles (bAdha) of his brother vAli – son (tanaya) (tanayuni) of indra (sankrandana).

C3 O Lord praised (nuta) by best (vara) archers (jyA) (literally bow-string)! O Consort (vara) of sItA– born of Earth(jyAjA)!

O Lord vAmana - upEndra – younger brother (avaraja) of indra (biDauja)! O Lord on whom this tyAgarAja is dependent (ASrita) (biDaujAvarajASrita)!

O Lord cherished (bhAvanIya) by Lords vishNu – Consort (vara) of bhUdEvi - Earth (jyA) - brahmA (aja) (varAja), Siva (rudra) and brAhmaNas (avanI sura) (rudrAvanI)! O Lord who is the very life (jIvana) of sages (muni)!

I have always (aniSamu) (jIvanAniSamu) trusted much Your Feet-Lotus.

Variations –

³ – tApamOrva lEnApenu – tApamOrvaniyApenu.

References –

² - bhUpAlula garvambulaNacu – The episode pertains to the test of strength in the court of the King janaka for the marriage of sItA. When sage viSvAmitra asks King janaka to show the bow of Siva, the King tells him that “not even the hosts of gods, demons, ogres, gandharvAs, yakshAs, kinnarAs and nAgAs were able to string the bow. How can there be any capacity in human beings". As the bow was brought in, the sage asks SrI rAma to take a look at the bow "vatsa rAma dhanuH paSya". Before any could see the total sequence of events, the bow broke when SrI rAma tried to string it.

⁴ – virOcana sutu mati galigina bhayamu – At the time making friendship with sugrIva, SrI rAma assures him that he would kill his brother vAli. However, since sugrIva did not know about SrI rAma and his prowess, he keeps on harping on the might of his brother. Whereupon SrI rAma asks sugrIva to tell what feat He should accomplish in order to prove his prowess. sugrIva points to seven gigantic sAl trees which he says vAli would be able denude them by shaking their boughs and he could pierce each one of them with his arrows. He also points to the huge carcass of the dundubhi lying there who was killed by vAli. Then SrI rAma kicks the carcass with his toe and hurls it to a distance of ten yOjanas – eighty miles. As the doubt of sugrIva was still not clear, Sri rAma takes an arrow and aims at the sAl trees; the arrow pierces all the seven trees in one go and returns to His quiver. Thus sugrIva was satisfied that SrI rAma would be able to kill vAli.

⁶ – biDaujAvaraja – biDaujas or viDaujas – name of indra – (7183)

⁶ – biDaujAvaraja – Younger brother of indra – upEndra - One of the names of Lord vishNu – the avatAra of vAmana - please refer to vishNu sahasra nAmaM – 151 and 152.

Comments -

In this regard, the following verses in SrImad-vAlmIki rAmAyaNa, kishkindhA kANDa, chapter 11 are relevant –

Evam-uktvA tu sugrIvam sAntvayaMi-lakshmaNAgraJaH |
rAghavO dundubhEH kAyaM pAdAngushThEna lIlayA ||
tOlayitvA mahA-bAhuS-cikshEpa daSa-yOjanaM |
asurasya tanuM SushkAM pAdAngushThEna vIryavAn || 84,85 ||

"Saying so and lifting, in sport the carcass of dundubhi with his toe, the mighty armed and powerful SrI rAma (a scion of raghu), the eldest (half-) brother of lakshmaNa, for his part hurled the dried up skeleton of the demon to a distance of ten yOjanas (eighty miles), (thereby) reassuring sugrIva."

The operative words used are 'kAya' meaning 'body' and 'tanuM SushkaM' meaning 'carcass', 'skeleton' and 'pAdAngushTa' meaning 'big toe'. Therefore, a suitable word for 'body', 'carcass', or 'skeleton' is required here. The telugu word for 'carcass' or 'body' is 'pIniga' or 'pInuga'; for 'skeleton' it is 'asti panjara' or 'kankALa'. The telugu word 'pAdAngushTha' is 'penu vElu', 'pedda vElu' or 'boTana vElu'.

Therefore, the probable word used for 'carcass' is 'pIniga' or 'pInuga'. Accordingly it would be 'pInuganu tannina'. Alternatively, it could be 'penu vElu tannina' meaning 'kicked by toe'. But, in this case the words 'ghanatama dundubhi' is not in proper form to be an object. Also, connecting the caraNa to the pallavi would not be very satisfactory.

Therefore, the first option ‘pInuganu tannina’ seems to be more probable.

⁷ – jyAvara bhAvanIya – In some books, this is translated as ‘kings’; however, in my opinion, the context refers to the Trinity; therefore, this has been translated as ‘vishNu’ – consort (vara) of bhUdEvi – Earth (jyA).
